

The Gordian knotPlace: Philippines

Form of organisation: entire group

Materials: none

Description of the game:

It can sometimes get a bit turbulent in this game. Are you able to solve the Gordian knot?

Position yourselves in a larger circle and close your eyes. On command, everyone shall move to the middle of the circle with outstretched arms. As soon as you touch the hand of another player, you have to try and keep firmly hold of them. You are only allowed to open your eyes when all of you are touching each others hands. Now it is time to unravel your hands without letting go of each other. Here you have to climb over each other, slip between the legs of the other players, turn and wrench yourselves ...
